

Mercurius Britannicus

OR, AN

EPHEMERIS

For the Year of Christ 1691

Being the Third after Bissextile or Leap-year and from the Creation, according to Scripture, 5640.

Fraught with variety of Matter befitting such a Subject.
Fitted for

The Meridian of the August City of London
whose Latitude is 51 deg. 32 min. and Longitude 24
deg. 20 min.

By JOHN WHALLEY, Student in Physick, and the Mathematicks.

'Tis now Twelve Months, my Friends, since I did kiss
Your Courteous Hands, with such a Work as this,
How well or ill those pleas'd, I value not,
But since my long-pent Muse hath freedom got,
She vows, still once a Year to be so kind,
Dear Mother-Church, and her Sweet Babe to mind;
And now thinks fit, before it be too late,
This to her Son Dermot to Dedicate;
And prays the rest to hold her now excus'd,
Declares they all be as kindly us'd,
She thinks 'tis reason she should first present
Her to so wise and wealthy Parliament — as Dermot.

And thou shalt consume all the People which the Lord thy God shall deliver thee, thine Eyes shall have no pity upon them, neither shalt thou serve their Gods, for that will be a snare unto thee. Deut. 10. 16.

LONDON,

Printed by W. S. for the Company of Stationers 1691.

To the High and Mighty Lordly and the rest of that Witty Pack of lately shuffled together at the
the Name of a Parliament to ruine themselves and the whole Kingdom of Ireland.

Come, Mighty Sirs, please here to cast your Eyes,
And behold your Honours Villanies:
Your Rye-house Plot, (Tricks of your blessed Queen,)
Sham-Prince, Essex and Charles's Death are seen.

Your Grey-head Dance, and Atterburian Show,
Bothwell Bridge, and Summerset Game we know.

Your Meal-Tub Shams, too late to be forgot,
How Colledge sign'd your old Shaftsburian Plot.

Corpish, Armstrong, and murder'd Russel bear,
Scarlet Evidences of your Church's Care.

Argile and Monmouth also cry aloud,
To be enroll'd among this crying Crowd.

Oh! Blessed Church, that can such witness bring,
To swear by Blood, that she made James a King.

He was, but how you know, Proclaimed so,
And kept his Word, as all his Subjects know.

He well maintain'd the Church, as he had sworn,
When he her Body all to Poesies tore;

And justly did support the British Laws,

When he asunder rent and tore their Jaws.

To take away the Penal Laws and Test,

Explanation, Settlement, and the rest.

Cast off just Judges, and to set up Rogues.

Butter-milk Rascals, with their Horokin Brogues;

To kick out all that help'd to drag him in,

With Holy Church is but a Venial Sin.

To turn all out that were both just and True,

And take none in that any Justice knew,

Was to be a man of Wit and Justice too.

First to dishband, and after to disarm,

All those that could secure him from harm:

Give Churches, Charters, Sword, and all to you,

Cowardly Rascals; whom he always knew

Blood-thirsty Monsters, (* ruin'd Charles the first, )

That each your British Bond did thirst.

To make you Villains Guardians to our Church,

Was to be a man of Wit and Justice too.

To give his Friends and Churches to a Breed

Of Beasts, (by far slier to bang than feed.)

* The Protestant
Joyner hang'd at Oxford, atter he was acquitted at London.

* Took away Colleges, Churches, &
Chapels.

* As in your fine
Parliament.

As you did all the Protestants in Ireland.

* When you counterfeited his Great
Seal, to countenance your Rebellion in 41.

To pack you Flat-foots to divide the Land,
Before you could one sorry Tithen command;
Was to bespeak Great James a Man of Sense,
As well as Stout, Just, True, and Faithfull Prince;
Fit to command only such Slaves as you,
Who never Courage, Sense, or Justice knew.

Like Prince, like People, stoutly at the Boyne,
Ran like true Cowards to save your Skins and * Cogn.

Ah! precious Stuff, Tyrconnel and your King.
Did you, dire Fops, all to confusion bring.

Your Avarice, Ambition, and your Pride,
With all your other damn'd Designs beside,
Are now confounded, hasten to your Broages,
Quit Horse and Boors, run as you us'd like Rogues.

Haste, waste to James, and tell to him 'tis true,
You ruin'd him, and he has ruin'd you.

Bigotted Apes, were ever Sots so kind?
Destroy your selves, to serve a Cause so blind.

Certainly none were e'er so Zealous seen,
To serve an Idol-Church, and Jilting Queen.

Alas, dear James, 'tis pity Heaven decreed,

Your Father's Son to joyn with such a Breed,

The Spawn of Hell, who to promote their Cause,

Spare neither Princes, Kingdoms, States, or Laws,

No Oath can be d, or sacred Promise is,

When breach can add to Jesuite Villany.

Your Holy Church enjoins by Bulls and Tricks,

All that deny her Doctrine Hereticks;

That 'tis Damnation to keep Faith with those,

And not destroy such her Heretick Foes.

What Faith then can poor Protestants repose?

In such, whose Faith makes Sin to keep their Oaths.

* The Copper
Money.

NOte, That the Table is divided into ten Columns, and so noted with great Figures at the top of the other Figure-Columns, all which are explained as follows.

Example 1. To find the Moons Rising and Setting, the eleventh day of March this Year; I find the Moon to be 21 days old, with which I enter the first Column of the Table, (noted with the Figures) and from 23 there found I direct my Eye straight along toward the Right-hand, and in the second Column I find 3 h. 36 m. which is the time of the Moons Shining; and the same day I find, in the Table of Sun-Rising, that the Sun riseth at 6, and sets at 6. Now because she decreaseth, I subtract her Shining from the time of Sun-rising, and the Remainder is the time of the Moons Rising. So by subtracting the Moons Shining (after the same manner) from Sun-setting, gives the Moons Setting.

Example 2. To find the Hour of the Night, and the Moons Southing, the eleventh of March; I find, as before, the Moon to be 21 days old, and with that I enter the third Column of the Table, and right against it in the second Column toward the Left-hand, I find 4 h. 48 m. which is the time of the Moons Southing; then repairing to a Sun-dial, I find the Shadow a quarter past the Stroke of 10; so that it wants 1 h. 45 m. of the Stroke of 12, which I subtract from 4 h. 48 m. and there remains 3 h. 3 m. the time of the Night. If it had been past 12, I must have added both Sums together, in stead of subtracting them.

Example 3. To find the time of High-water at Holy-head, March 13, when the Moon is 23 days old; with this 23 I enter the third Column of the Table, and from thence direct my Eye along towards the Right-hand, till I come to the ninth Column under Holy-head, and there I find 3 h. 54 m. the time of High-water; which because the Moon decreaseth, is Afternoon; but if it had been on the 27th. day, when the Moon was but 8 days old, and so increasing in Light, it would have been the same Hour in the Morning.

To find the Length of the Day and Night, double the time of Sun-setting, and it gives the Length of the Day; and double the time of Sun-rising, and it gives the Length of the Night.

A Table of Houses designedly Calculated for the City of Waterford in Ireland, but is equally fitted to St. Edmonds-bury, Warwick, and every other Place whose Latitude is 52 Degrees and 20 Minutes North.

To the Protestants of Ireland.

ALL Hail, my Friends, your grievous Years are gone,
 And Crumbs of Comfort now are coming on.
 Blest be Great William, did redeem your Lands,
 And put the Sword once more into your Hands.

Remember how Tyrconnel, and his Breed,
 With Hell and Rome, your Ruine had Decreed;
James's promise, shams and tricking Lies,
 Made to Hoodwink, and darken all our Eyes.
 He promis'd to maintain the Church and Laws,
 Yet gave up both into the Lyons Paws.
 Yea, gave your selves, and all you had to those,
 Your Father's Butchers, always British foes.
 And yet declar'd your Liberties and Lives
 He would defend, and as perform'd, he thrives.

He truly promis'd, and as well did keep,
 When Irish Wolves dragg'd you to Gaol like sheep.

But mark my Friends, how Justice did pursue,
 For breach of Faith, sweet Femmy, and his Crew.
 The Stars of Heaven, did in their Courses fight,
 And at the Boyn put all the Slaves to flight.
 Their Hare-like Souls, with pannick fear possess'd,
 Well knew their guilt, cou'd find no place of rest.
 All in confusion and strange hurry run.

Scarce stay to see a Sword, or hear a Gun.
 The Commandy King (the second time by chance)
 Like man from wits, new chas'd, escapes to France.
 His Peers and People, each their way, like slaves,
 As best could get, to Hills, Woods, Bogs and Caves.
 B. Heaven thus hunted from the Bloss they dread,
 First to, then from, their mighty Cities fled.

Thus, thus, the Heavens did terrifie and fright,
 And chase those Wolves that did invade your right:
 And thus the Heavens have further now decreed,
 To utter ruine all that Hellish-Breed.

Great William's promis'd ev'ry where success,
 All those God armeth, may expect no less.
 That mighty Army, who had sworn to know
 No King but James, Great William melts like Snow.

Here's

gone,

Here's Blessings flowing, if you'll them imbrace ;
If not, remember that 'twas Israel's case.

When God the Sword had put into their hand,
As now to yours, for to redeem their Land,
They spar'd the Edge, and God in wrath did rise,
And gave them up again to Enemies.

Your Fathers Blood oft gain'd the Sword before,
And us'd; but how 'twas from their Children tore,
By whom you know, far worse than Pharoah's Rod,
He only worship'd, these eat their Idol-God.

Monsters in Grain, far worse than Israel's Foes, [4 & 5.
Hear what the Heaven of old decreed to those. Deut. 7. 3,

*And when the Lord thy God shall deliver thee before thee ;
thou shalt smite them, and utterly destroy them, thou shalt make no Covenant with them, neither shalt thou make Marriage with them : thy Daughter shalt thou not give unto his Son, nor his Daughter shalt thou take unto thy Son : for they will turn away thy Son from following me, that they may serve other Gods : So shall the anger of the Lord be kindled against you, and destroy thee suddenly. But thus ye shall deal with them ; Ye shall destroy their Altars, and break down their Images, and cut down their Groves, and burn their Graven Images with fire.*

Thus, thus, the order and decree of Heaven,
Against those Idol-worshippers was given ;
And thus it was, you mingl'd with that Crew,
That brought, and yet will bring their woes on you :
There is such wavering for confounded pelf,
Some wo'n't obey, tho' God command himself.

Now, now's the time, it that you will it use ,
If not, remember, you Heaven's help refuse ;
Those Scars that did, they still do fight your foes,
Sends some to Pegs, the rest's at your dispose.
Their Buttermilk Souls on ev'ry side beset,
With dread and fear, fresh sorrows do beget.

As at the Boyn, so at the Shannon they
In vain do strive, but can't now run away.
Thus, thus Heaven again brought to your Bow
That Hellish Brood design'd your overthrow.

Ye shall make you no Idols nor Graven-Image, neither rear you up a Standing-Image. Levit. 26. 1.

A Word in favour of Astrology.

A Noble Science is that Curious Art,
Astrology, that Secrets doth impart;
 And yet, why Secrets call'd ? they are indeed
Secrets to none, but such as cannot read.

It is the Language, what the Stars do preach,
 Their various Influences it doth reach,
 What they do dictate, how mutations flow,
 On Elementary Bodies here below.

Kingdoms and Empires, Councils, States most grave
 For this rare Art a veneration have.

'Twas first reveal'd to Adam, then to Seth,
 Which he preserv'd with care until his Death;
 And all the Patriarchs before the Flood,
 And after too, this Art have understood.

The Great Almighty ESSENCE to proclaim
 His Wisdom, at the first, all things did frame;
 And to bring up the Reer did Man create,
 After's own Image, in a blissful State.
 Heavens Viceroy, the Created Empires King,
 Who doubtless Knowledge had in every thing
 That God Almighty thought fit to reveal;
 Theology grants this, I do appeal
 To Sacred Writ, before Man's dreadful Fall
 Great Knowledge had, for he gave Names to all
 Which God by Wisdom in Creation made:
 As he them call'd, those Names upon them stay'd.
 He's Lord of all, that's the Eternal Law;
 What Dominion, Reverence and Awe
 He had before his Fall, does still remain,
 Much of his Knowledge he does yet retain.

When he excluded was from blissful State,
 All's Knowledge was not then prevaricate.
 To exercise his Knowledge, the rest was made,
 The first days Light from Darkness was display'd;
 And that Days work soon after did produce
Sun, Moon and Stars, for Seasons, Signs, their use.

Some to decry't, in vain their time have spent,
 And foolish strains into the world have sent.

But to oppose their Sophistry with Reason,
One word by way of Argument in season.

God's Ordinance is lawful, all agree;
God's Ordinance, I say's Astrology.

About the Major, we don't here divide;
The Minor prov'd, the contest will decide,

God with those Glorious Sparks adorn'd the Sphears,
To serve for Seasons, Signs, for Days and Years :
But this Rare Art is nothing but the Signs
Of those great Lamps, whose vertuous powers inclines ;
The Elementary Bodies : hence 'tis plain,
That God Almighty did this Art ordain.

Nothing more certain is, (as Gerson saith)
Than that God in his secret wisdom hath Dispos'd so of the Heavenly Bodies above,
That through their Influences he doth move ;
And by his working, and their Influence,
His will is acted, and performed thence.
So to accomplish it, did preordain,
Till the Second Chaos it should so remain.

But some may say, Who knows these Sparks on high, }
Can tell their distance, or know where they lie, }
Or find their motions in their Azure Sky ? }

Whoe're black Eurus wings did climb or mount,
So as of them to give a true account ?
Or where does Sacred Writ those Depths unfold ;
For Secrets were forbid to pry, why should
We speak of things so far beyond our reach ?
Peace Friend, the Plants may thee instructions reach :
The Herbs o'th' Field can well resolve this doubt,
Who was't their virtues did at first find out ?
Time and Experience even the Father is,
'Tis that hath taught the Sons of Art all this.

That Virtue is in every Herb, we know,
By common use, experience tells us so.
The Ancients, who even Centuries did live,
From their own Times did Observations give
Of what they learn'd ; which being from hand to hand
Transmitted in all Ages : needs must stand
Like Rocks, against the Ignorant, who reach,
There is no truth in what the Stars do preach

Astra regunt homines, is a Maxim sure ;
Sed regit Astra Deus, is the truer.
 These Earthly Bodies by the Stars are sway'd,
 The Stars by God, for he their courses laid,
 And ordered them as a peculiar Treasure,
 Unto Mankind, to shew their Maker's pleasure ;
 And to make plain the Knots in Nature's Law,
 Which rule the Air, and Earth by Frost and Thaw,
Revealing Secrets rare, both new and old,
 The good and bad effects of heat and cold ;
 Both Rich and Poor are Debtors to the Stars.
 For timely they forewarn of Peace and Wars :
 Yea, when for sin God's angry with a place,
 The Stars do faithfully declare the case.

Wherefore be gone you Carpers, cease your rants,
 Wisdom explodes you; and your foolish Taunts,
 Serve only to detect your muddy brains,
 And plainly shew what trash in you remains:
 Like Swine delighting still in dirt and mire,
 Basely abusing those who look up higher;
 You justly make your selves each Wise man's scorn;
 Cumbering the Earth as Thistles cumber Corn.
 Whilst Arts and Artists more illustrious grow,
 The more you bark at things you do not know.

Forbear, forbear, must wise men cease to study,
 Because your Eyes are dim, and Brains are muddy ?
 Must Wise men cease to talk of Excellence,
 Because some Thick-skulls understand not Sense ?
 Must Scholars leave their Books, and run away,
 Because some Drones delight in sleep and play ?
 If so, let Tradesmen fling away their Tools,
 And all agree to fill the World with Fools.
 Each Countray Plowman with his Dish and Spoon,
 Confutes such Follies, learning from the Moon,
 When she encreases, kills his Hogs for Bacon,
 Which shews how much such Dull-Heads are mistaken ;
 Wo'nt geld his Pigs or Calves, nor cut his Vine
 Till he first examines where's the sign.
 And Pregnant Women, oft-times do no less,
 Than make such Observations with success,

Yea sick and frantick People do the same.
 For which no Wise man, ever did them blame.
 When th' Moon's at full, or when she comes to change,
 Some Alteration is not counted strange :
 And still as she observes her various course,
 They sometimes better grow, and sometimes worse.

The Swelling Seas are guided to and fro,
 By Luna's Influence they ebb and flow ;
 Which makes the Mariner observe her still,
 Because he knows he must submit his will
 To go or stay according to the Tide,
 Which feels the power of that Celestial Guide,
 He can give Judgment when the Tide will rise,
 By which he shapes his course, if he be wise.
 These things are obvious to each Rustick's Eye,
 So plain, that few or none can this deny.
 And what's all this ? can any Wise man tell,
 But Chambers where Astrology doth dwell ?
 These are the Twigs of that Cœlestial Tree,
 From whence wise hands do pluck Astrology.
 Yea, 'tis indeed Astrology it self,
 Condemn'd and own'd by the self-same Elf ;
 The greatest Artist, which doth farthest look,
 Only reads better in the self-same Book :
 Makes rare improvements of the self-same Art,
 Which ev'ry Swain consults at Plow and Cart.

If sight be good, then in it's least degrees,
 It can't be bad in those that better sees.

Away with all those Foolish Ranters then,
 Be dumb for ever, or else talk like men.
 But if you must and will be barking still,
 Get you to Cerberus, and Bark your fill.
 Yet first take this Advice before you go,
 'Tis that will teach you better things to know.
 Consider well the secret operations,
 And Influence of the Planets in their Stations.
 From Sol's bright Rays doth wondrous things proceed,
 And many ways we feel their force indeed.
 And all the rest do mutually reflect;
 Their Heavenly beams great secrets to effect.

If any ask the reason why 'tis so ?
 I'll first request him, Tell me, if he know,
 Whence SYMPATHY, ANTIPATHY arise
 'Twixt Animals, for some are Enemies
 Unto each other ? MAN the Serpent fears,
 The SERPENT he the same to Man appears.
 The LYON trembles when the COCK doth crow ;
 The Hen and Chickins fear the Kite, we know ;
 The Mouse the Cat, the Hare flees from the Hound;
 All this Experience through the World doth sound.

Whence comes the various Tinctures of the Flowers,
 But from the working of the Heav'nly Powers ?
 The curious Scenting of the Spaniel's Nose,
 From whence proceeds it, tell me he that knows ?

Whence comes the Wisdom in the Ant we see ?
 The Rule of that Small Monarch call'd the Bee ?
 Whence is't that SYMPATHETICK Powders heal ?
 Or why the Loadstone draws and hugs the Steel ?

These all are Nature's Secrets, Why should we Rashly condemn, because we do not see
 The secret windings of each powerful Wheel,
 Whose motions though we see not, yet we feel ?
 And still we know, all these things are done,
 Yet who condemns the Loadstone, or the Sun ?
 Who counts the Kite a Conjurer ? or makes
 The Cock a Witch, because the Lyon quakes ?

Why should you then so much enraged grow
 At such, who only tell you why 'tis so ?
 Cease to condemn this Art, which hath foundations,
 But still upon the Heavenly Salutations
 Of the Erratick, and the glittering Stars,
 Who do the Work they are call'd to, without Fars.

Trough Study deep, and long Experience led,
 These hidden things are plain discovered.

Canst thou bind the sweet influence of the Pleiades, or guide Arcturas with his Son ? Job 38.

The Stars in their course fought against Sissera, Judg. 5.
 20. And they were set for Signs and for Seasons, and for Days, and for Years, (Gen. 1. 14.) and to rule over the day, and to rule over the night. And God saw all he had made,
 and behold it was good. And then the Stars, or their Study,

Of the Eclipses 1691.

THere will happen two Eclipses this Year, and both of the Sun.

The first on the 18th day of February, but invisible to us.

The Second will in it self be less, yet more visible to us, if the Air prove clear near 5 in the Afternoon, the 13th of August: And will prove of no small consequence to the Deare-foys, in the now almost ruined Kingdom of Ireland, as well as some other parts of Christendom. It helps lustily forward the Evils of August and September, a time of mischief with a vengeance, both by Sea and Land, and both the Heathen and Christian Turk feel it, especially the latter, I mean the French-Hector, that sets all Christendom in a flame, feels the effect in a great measure himself this Year: and I believe about those very Months; for besides the Eclipse, all things concur then together for nothing but Blood, and Mischief, both by Sea and Land: Burning and destroying of Towns and Fleets, and what other destructions and slaughters Nature can extend to poor Mortals.

Saturn and Mars opposing each other in July, and both they and Jupiter then, and in August, opposing the Sun a little before and after the Eclipse; threaten a miserable Havock among Persons of the Superior rank: Yea, even among Kings, Princes, and the principal Nobility of Nations; and to tell truth, the Lesser are not exempted.

Eighty Eight begun the Game;

Eighty Nine pursu'd the same;

Great Ninety could not Europe tame,

But found and left her in a Flame.

And it's to be fear'd Ninety-one will not extinguish it; for besides all the threats of the Celestial wanderers, it can't by me be conceived that Prodigies (of which number I may esteem Earthquakes) perform not their respective Errands. In hot Countries they are not so strange as with us. I do not remember ever to have heard of an Earthquake in Ireland, till that which happened in and about Dublin, the 7th of Oct. 1690. in which a woman at Wicklow, holding an Apple in her hand, (without any other known cause) the Apple split in two equal parts. It's generally conceived they infect the Air; and I beseech God we find not, that (at least) a Messenger of Pestiferous Atoms this Year.

The Conclusion.

Courteous Reader,

Although for want of time sufficient to such a purpose, neither my last nor this, obtained so good a Dress as I could wish them; yet I stand obliged to do my self the Justice to inform the Readers of my last; That it left my hands in something a different order from that in which it saluted you; how several mistakes therein happen'd to pass the Press; I am ignorant; but take leave to say truly, I did not send them thither; and both then, and now, at too great a distance to correct them; and therefore intreat, if thou find any of like kind in this, friend-like to excuse and correct them, and in so doing, you will oblige me Annually to employ my Pen to inform you, That I am, and resolve to be.

And) as they read, will tear and swallow you }
At best they'll Storm, Curse, Damn, and toss thee by,

We know their Kindness, and by my consent;
They should be paid now with the *Coy*n they lent.
